1996 ARTS GRANTS PROGRAM REPORT

INTRODUCTION

The Regional Municipality of Ottawa-Carleton provides grants to arts organizations and artists to foster the creation, presentation and public enjoyment of the arts in a regional context.

ARTS GRANTS POLICY

The grants are allocated according to a formal Policy which outlines the following goals:

- 1 More work of a high quality created and presented by the artists and arts organizations of the Region.
- 2 Expansion of well-informed, active audiences of all ages drawn from all parts of the Region in a wide variety of artistic disciplines.
- 3 Wider opportunities for artists to reflect the linguistic duality, cultural diversity, ideas and aspirations, of the people of the Region.
- 4 An economic and social environment which offers reasonable career prospects in the Region for talented and productive people working in the arts.

To achieve the goals, funding is provided in the following categories:

- 1 Operating Grants for arts organizations who serve a major regional function; demonstrate a consistently high level of achievement; offer a season of productions; and have established funding from another government source.
- 2 Project Grants for arts organizations and artists creating, producing or exhibiting works that will be completed within a specified time. In this category are A and B grants which are awarded to individual artists to offset costs associated with the creation of new works.
- 3 Development Grants for arts organizations to strengthen their outreach, managerial competence or financial viability.
- 4 Achievement Award Grants to recognize the work of an established artist or recognize a significant artistic achievement.

ARTS GRANTS PROGRAM MANAGEMENT

To manage the program, Regional Council in 1979 appointed an Arts Committee to review all applications and make funding recommendations. The present Committee consists of three elected members and four community representatives:

Councillor Al Loney, Chair
Councillor Wendy Stewart, Vice Chair
Councillor Peter Hume
Jocelyn Harvey
James Wegg
Barbara McInnes
Benoit Osborne

ARTS GRANTS BUDGET

The annual budget for the Arts Grants Program is determined on a per capita funding formula as approved by Regional Council. This year's per capita was set at $1.22 which, based on a population in Ottawa-Carleton of 716,000 provided a total budget of $876,000.

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications were received in mid-January, reviewed by the Arts Grant Coordinator and forwarded to eight discipline art juries. The juries met in February and March to assess the submissions and make funding priority recommendations.

The juries, made up of experienced members of the artistic community, (see Annex B), assessed the applications based on criteria outlined in the Regional Arts Grants Policy. The Arts Committee considered the jurors recommendations when making the financial allocation decisions along with the additional criteria of financial viability, administrative strength and community support.

STATISTICAL ANALYSIS

A total of 207 applications were received in 1996 requesting a total of $1,469,883. Funding was recommended for 111 applicants or 53%.

The following chart illustrates the level of support for the various categories:

	Number of Applicants Funded
	1995	1996
Operating	32 organizations $609,081	32 organizations $598,231
Organizational Projects	31 groups $81,939	26 groups $68,806
Artists' Projects	49 $198,880	53 $208,963

A complete statistical breakdown of the 1995 and 1996 Arts Grants Program is attached (see Annex C).

OTTAWA-CARLETON BOOK AWARD

As part of the Arts Grants Program, the Arts Committee coordinates the Ottawa-Carleton Book Award. The award, which began in 1986, recognizes literary excellence, and is presented in alternate years in the categories of fiction and non-fiction.

In 1991, the award was expanded to two $ 2,000 prizes; one for an English author and one for a French author.

As with the Arts Grants Program, juries appointed by the Arts Committee, read all non-fiction entries, determined a short list, and selected the finalists.

This year's short list included:

OTTAWA-CARLETON BOOK AWARD
1996 NON-FICTION

English Book Award

Roy MacGregor - *The Home Team :
Fathers, Sons & Hockey* (Penguin Books Canada)

Lawrence Martin - *Chrétien - Volume 1 :

Bringing an End to Empire* (McGill Queen's University Press)

Vic Parsons - Bad Blood : The Tragedy of the Canadian Tainted Blood Scandal
(Lester Publishing)

Warren Kinsella - Web of Hate (Harper
Collins Publishers)

The 1996 jurors for the Ottawa-Carleton Book Award included:

English Book Award

Mary Arseneau
Andrew Muir
Penelope Williams

French Book Award

René Dionne
Pierre Pelletier
Nicole Champeau

At the literary awards presentation evening sponsored by the Ottawa-Valley Book Festival, May 3, 1996, Clyde Sanger was awarded the 1996 English Book Award. Dr. Elisabeth J. Lacelle was presented with the 1996 French Book Award.
